

Heber Celebration plans set

HEBER CITY (LRJ) No need to go beyond Main Street for Fourth of July activities. Annually, the Tabernacle grounds attract patriots and celebrants from near and far. Chuck Wagon Breakfasts have people lining up at 7 a.m. for inexpensive meals of sausage, eggs, pancakes, hashbrowns, orange juice or milk.

The Flag Ceremony and the

speaker are planned to inspire patriotism and set the theme for the day. Channel 5 plans to land its helicopter in the open area directly west of the court house parking lot at about 10:30 a.m. and will cover the event.

From 9:30 to 11:00 the planned program of entertainment helps keep parents and children from wandering too far and warns up the crowd for the 1 to 5 p.m. talent show and games periods when everyone gets a chance to show his stuff and skills.

The Barbeque Beef Dinner satisfies the need for good food unless one has been munching at the booths where specialties will be sold all day. Mr. Clyde Muir indicates on his brochure that prices for the dinner will range from $3.50 to $2.50 to $1.50, so the entire family may be fed reasonably.

Especially "pushed" for the celebration are friendship, mountain fresh air breezes, leafy shade trees, soft and pliant grass, bluff white clouds, and relaxation.
